Course Packet

This course packet is an automatically generated document from the main course website (https://jacklreilly.github.io/pai721-f25), and contains the core course documents - the syllabus, the topic schedule, and course/university policies. Certain formatting may look better on the web, and the website is always the most current source of information.